HOW

I turn vague growth problems into systems people can understand, trust, and act on.

01

PROBLEM INTELLIGENCE

BRIEF
MARKET
USER
KPI

DECODE

Find the real growth problem inside the brief by reading audience friction, market pressure, search intent, and decision risk before choosing channels.

BRIEF MATRIX

COMPETITOR / SERP SCAN

AUDIENCE FRICTION MAP

OUTCOME

One problem statement, target logic, and KPI guardrails before production starts.

02

SYSTEM DESIGN

ROLES
ANGLES
OWNERS
CADENCE

FRAME

Turn messy inputs into a campaign architecture: channel roles, content angles, owner map, operating cadence, and reporting logic.

CHANNEL MAP

KPI TREE

CONTENT / TASK BOARD

OUTCOME

A plan that clients, teams, and partners can execute without interpretation drift.

03

EXECUTION CONTROL

COPY
DESIGN
KOL
QA

SHIP

Coordinate copy, design, KOL/community, search, web, and partner deliverables with QA before the work goes live.

PRODUCTION QUEUE

QA CHECKLIST

LAUNCH NOTES

OUTCOME

Assets ship on cadence, with clearer channel fit and fewer late-stage reversals.

04

LEARNING LOOP

GA4
UTM
REPORT
NEXT

COMPOUND

Read response signals, separate noise from useful evidence, report the next move, and convert learning into the next cycle.

GA4 / UTM VIEW

CLIENT REPORT

NEXT-ACTION BACKLOG

OUTCOME

Decisions, renewals, and follow-up campaigns become easier to justify.
